TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

Democratic Dictation.

Marryatt in one of his lively tales discusses the palm of impudence between a midshipman and a [illegible] but had he lived in this State, and at this time, he might have justly given it entire to some democratic newspaper and politicians. As one of the constantly recurring instances of their effrontery it may be remembered that a few days since a paragraph was going the rounds of the democratic press like this, "It is stated that the present vacancy on the Supreme Court Bench will be filled by the appointment of Hon. W. N. H. Smith or the Hon. W. A. Battle. No better appointment could be made." How refreshing are such evidences of the friendly interest these arrogant bigots have in smuggling one of their own political faith on the Supreme Court Bench through the agency of a Republican Governor!

Do they really suppose that Governor Caldwell, calumniated and assailed by them as he has daily been, will permit them to nominate his appointees? The opponents of the government who contend, and attempt to establish the fact, that there is no lawful Supreme Court, coolly propose to elevate one of their partizans to a position under that "no government" by dictating to an authority which they cannot recognize. It is time that they learned that Governor Caldwell is a man who cannot be flattered or intimidated by his personal and political enemies. It is time that, as they dispute or deny the existence of a government in North Carolina, they should desist from seeking office in the State. It is time that they be taught by Governor Caldwell and the people, that they cannot again rule and ruin this State. So far from appointing any or either of the democrats so nominated, the Governor advocated to the Supreme Court Bench an ardent and tried Republican, in the person of the Hon. W. P. Bynum, formerly of Lincolnton, now of Mecklenburg. Since the Governor did not deem it proper to confer this high honor upon the Eastern section of the State, so well represented by such men as Buxton, London, Russell, Faircloth, Cantwell, Moore, Albertson and others, the appointment of Colonel Bynum is one that reflects credit upon the Governor and the Republican party. No man more eminently qualified for the position can be found in the ranks of either or all parties in the State.

The importance of selecting proper men for the Judiciary cannot be exaggerated. Men in harmony with the spirit and the letter of our laws and institutions are indispensible as interpreters of those laws. To place in office, especially in the Judiciary, men of revolutionary sentiments, or whose convictions are strongly hostile to the present government, would be to hazard almost beyond salvation, our form and substance of government. It has been the practice in this country for appointments in the Judiciary, to be controlled by political considerations, from the time of John Marshall's day to the present. He was a Federalist of the strongest feelings, and for political purposes was appointed by President Adams, Chief Justice of the United States. So was Roger B. Taney elevated to the same position by Gen. Jackson for partizan services, and to further political ends. No appointing power elected by, and faithful to a political party, goes beyond that party to confer its benefits. President Grant will seek and find among the Republican lawyers of the country, a Chief Justice to fill the existing vacancy. How could he dare appoint a man who might set aside all the legislation and policy of the country for the past ten years? How could Governor Caldwell appoint a member of that party which is unyielding in its hostility to the existing government, to the position of Justice of the Supreme Court, without betraying the hopes of the Republican party? In what instance have the Democrats sought outside of their own ranks, a person upon whom to confer gifts within the power of their appointment?

The public printing is patronage belonging to a Democratic Legislature. The Republican party does not expect it, nor seek it. It does not attempt by cajolery or dictation to dispose of what the opposition certainly thinks is its own. Should it be attempted, it would be fiercely resented by some of those who are now applying for it as the reward of party ervice. And as the Republican party can offer such an array of personal merit and professional bearing for any positions which may come within the appointment of its chosen leaders, they will certainly confine their selections to their own organization.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

ELEVENTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Nov. 29.

Senate met at 12 o'clock, Lieutenant Governor in the chair.

Reports of Standing Committees.

Reports from the Judiciary Committee were submitted, and from the Committee on Bngrossed Bills.

Messages Received

From the House, transmitting a message from the Governor in regard to the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company, with a proposition to print the report, which was concurred in.

From the House announcing the committee appointments on the effect of the Constitutional Amendments on the present session.

From the House announcing that the House had refused to concur in the Senate amendment in extending further time for the Sheriffs to settle to the 1st of February.

Mr. Cowles was opposed to receding from the action of the Senate, and moved a Joint Committee of Conference to consider the matter.

Mr. Welch argued that the Senate should recede from its action, as doubtless undue haste in its passage was exercised by the Senate.

The vote was taken and the Senate receded from its action and concurred in the original House bill to extend the time of Sheriffs to settle one-fourth of the State taxes from their respective counties on the 1st Monday of January.

From the House, asking the concurrence of the Senate in the following resolution:

House bill to amend the charter of the Midland Carolina Railroad bill.

The bill was taken up, read three times and passed.

Resolution of instruction to our Representatives in Congress.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the resolution was adopted.

From the House, asking the concurrence of the Senate in the passage of a resolution in regard to public printing. The resolution provides that the General Assembly shall ratify the action of the Committee on Printing.

Mr. Cowles moved to lay on the table.

Mr. Allen moved to amend by indefinite postponing.

The resolution was taken up, and the motion of Mr. Allen prevailed by 16 ayes to 12 nays.

Introduction of Bills.

By Mr. Flemming: A bill for the support and better government of the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

On motion of Mr. Love, the bill was referred to a select committee of three.

By Mr. Humphreys: A bill to amend chapter 16, section 60, of the laws of 1869–70.

Referred to Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Murray, a bill requiring Justices of the Peace to take cognizance of certain acts as petty misdemeanors. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Says the Asheville Citizen of the 27th ultimo: "Miss Hettie Massie, of Madison county, died a few days ago, aged 65 years. She was born without limbs, (arms or legs,) was of more than ordinary intellect and energy; could sweep the floor as well and quickly as any one; could write well, and read most fluently. At an early age she became a member of the Baptist Church, and continued a devout christian to her death. She was the daughter of Miss Massey. Her father's name was Thos. Revis. By his legitimate wife he had 17 children, and by Miss Massey the same number—34 in all. He raised the two families, and all became good, sober, industrious citizens. At his death, (at 70 years,) he left each child a good farm. The two families always maintained the greatest harmony of feelings."

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and lavishly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,

Resolutions

Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N. C,

WHEREAS, THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens.

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad cut or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide, on Fifth Street forty feet wide, on Sixth Street Twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty feet wide, on McRae Street twenty feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point.

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873.

SMASH UP.—The mail train on the W. C & A. Railroad, which left here at 4:50 yesterday morning, met with quite a serious accident near Cain's Savanna, about one hundred and sixty-three miles from Wilmington, and thirty-six miles this side of Columbia. When within about one hundred yards of the trestle, the engine collided with a hand car, and had its front wheels thrown from the track. The train kept lumbering on, and had nearly crossed the trestle, when the engine fell through, pulling the express and mail cars off the track, and throwing them on their side.—The mail and express agents seeing that it was almost certain death to remain in the cars, sprang out, and in so doing the express agent, Mr. West, met with some slight bruises and a sprained arm. The passengers met with no injuries whatever, save that of loss of time.

The Cincinnati Gazette draws comfort from the fact that we have had but one panic in sixteen years, while England, with a specie basis, has had two panics within seven years.

DARING.—Sunday night, about ten o'clock, an attempted entrance into the dwelling of Mr. Walker Meares, near the corner of Third and Nun streets, was made. Mr. Meares heard a noise at his bedroom window, and got up to get his pistol. While at the bureau searching for it, the would-be robber raised the window and put his hand on a little child who was sleeping in a crib close up to it. The hand wsa seen by the father, who immediately asked who it was, but he was not rewarded by an answer, as the thief left rather hurriedly. This is one of the most daring attempts that we have heard of in a long time, and think it is to be deplored that the nocturnal visitor left so soon.

BE CAREFUL.—Yesterday morning a dwelling on Dock street narrowly escaped being consumed by the devouring element, through carelessness of the housemaid. She was instructed to take the dead coals and ashes from the grate, and not being able to find the coal scuttle she deposited the ashes in a wooden vessel of some kind, and placed it in the kitchen which is attached to the dwelling. The entire bottom of the vessel was consumed, and the floor had commenced to burn before any one discovered that there was fire anywhere in the immediate vicinity of the vessel. It required no very deep thought to know how the fire got in the newly converted scuttle. Housekeepers should be exceedingly cautious where they have ashes thrown, as there are always more or less live coals in them. Had the grate alluded to above been cleaned out in the afternoon, in order to put more coal on and revive the fire for the evening, the house would have undoubtedly been consumed.

A COMMON MISTAKE.—It strikes the most of persons, when they first sit down to a Sewing Machine, that it is so complicated they will never be able to learn its operation. This is true of many machines, but a single day's use of the "New Howe Machine," with the instruction that is easily obtained, will enable any lady to make a good beginning, and a few days' practice will make it a pleasant employment. Of course in this, as in any other work, practice is needful to reach perfection. Sewing with the needle in the fingers is not learned in a day, and years are required to become an expert. But a few weeks' use of the New Howe Sewing Machine will enable any lady to do all her plain sewing, and to do it well, and soon her fine sewing with far more success than with her needle, and leave her plenty of time for everything else she may have on hand. Call and see these world-renowned Machines, or take one on trial of the Agent, W. D. GOODRICH, Market street, near Third. It.

—Judge Davis on last Saturday fined Messrs. Graham, Fullerton, and W. O. Bartlett, senior members of the counsel for Tweed in the late trial, to a fine of $250 each after subjecting them to a sharp lecture for a breach of good morals in passing him a paper giving a reason why he should not preside at the trial. The junior members of the counsel were let off with a reprimand. The court room was densely packed with distinguished lawyers, and Judge Davis in tha course of his remarks, was frequently applauded.

—The Hoosac tunnel has at length been completed. It is the second longest in the world, being about three miles long. It is expected that a tide of commerce will pour through it, which will make Boston the equal of New York.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The President's message opens by a reference to the financial crisis, the Grangers' movement, and the Virginius matter, which, it says, is in course of amicable adjustment. The American artisans at the Vienna Exposition made a creditable appearance. The Codic trade is mentioned, and further legislation to suppress it is urged. A commission is recommended for auditing and determining the losses caused by Confederate privateers. It recommends a court to hear all claims of aliens against the United States, arising out of damages committed during the late war.

The President transmits the application of San Domingo for a protectorate to be granted by the United States. He suggests legislation upon the subject of the extradition of American citizens residing permanently abroad. He refers to the establishment of the Spanish Republic and its efforts to abolish slavery; and says that the execution of fifty-three of the passengers and crew of the Virginius was an inhuman and illegal murder. The correspondence with Spain having been conducted in cypher and by cable, it is not at present in a condition to be laid before Congress. The Madrid government has, however, yielded to his demand of the surrender of the Virginius and the survivors, salute the flag, indemnity to families, and the punishment of the guilty.

He suggests two constitutional amendments; one to permit the President to approve of a part of a law, and veto what is objectionable, and the other that Congress, in extra session, shall be confined to such legislation as the President may bring before it, from time to time, in writing. He recommends the erection of suitable buildings in Washington for cabinet officials and such other officers as receive commutation for quarters.

The message goes very fully into the financial question, and declares that the country cannot have permanent prosperity until specie payments are resumed. It recommends legislation preventing national banks from paying interest on deposites, and forcing them into resumption, if only in legal tenders. It suggests free banking. The improvement in American ship building during the year is noticed. Canals are suggested for cheap transportation, also that the Erie and Illinois canals be enlarged by the owners, and kept in navigable condition by the general government, in view of their importance.

The President recommends an exploration of the Upper Amazon and its tributaries. Also a revisal and codification of the Tariff laws. He endorses the recommendation of the P. M. General for the establishment of Postoffice Savings depositories, and asks the attention of Congress to a postal telegraph. The bankrupt law he thinks productive of more evil than good, and if not repealed, should be modified in its provisions regarding involuntary bankruptcy. Attention is called to the unusual amount of claims against the government, most of them arising out of the rebellion, and not a few of them fabricated.

A territorial form of government is recommended for the Indian territory. The suggestion of a census in 1875 is endorsed. He eulogizes the Washington Board of Public Works, speaks of the great improvements, and suggests a liberal policy by Congress in defraying a part of the expenses. A National University is recommended.

An enabling act for the admission of Colorado as a State is recommended. Also a canal from the Eastern slope of the Rocky mountains to the Missouri, for irrigation. In conclusion, he recommends general amnesty, and suggests that the number of those laboring under disabilities is small, but large enough to keep up a feeling of irritation. He suggests the enactment of a law to better secure the civil rights which freedom should confer, but which has not effectually been done to the enfranchised slaves.

The reading of the message occupied an hour and a half, and was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

An exchange says that "Miss Anna Dickinson's list of engagements this season is the largest she has ever had." This is particularly strange, considering the shameful flattening out of the one last year with Whitelaw Reid. But men are easily cajoled, and women were deceivers ever.

Lady Amberley, an English woman who recently visited this country, said "American school girls all look sick." But then Hawthorne said: "English women past forty step like elephants." And Aaron Burr, on seeing Fanny Kemble said she was "A fine animal!" So who is ahead in this controversy?

The residence of Mr. P. Calhoun, Buncombe county, together with the grainery and smoke house, was destroyed by fire on the 15th ult.

Mary Parhee, colored, fell dead on Middle street, Newbern, on Monday.

SENATE—James R. Young has been elected Executive Clerk.

Sumner again pressed his civil rights bill. Leary and Edmunds opposed it and it went on the table without adjudication. This action postpones the bill indefinitely, and probably defeats it.

HOUSE—Butler's motion to seat Sypher, Sheldon, and Pinchback is up.—Beck argues in opposition, and is allowed half an hour, not to come out of his time. These proceedings will delay the message indefinitely.

Beck made a powerful speech against seating the Louisiana delegates.

LONDON, December 2.

The newspapers here claims to have reliable information that Cardinal Ricci, Arch Bishop of Reaugid, is the favorite for the next Pope.

The Captain of the Tremontain reports that when he left the Loch Earn her bowsprit was gone, and there was a large hole in her bow above the water line. The boat continued searching around the place where the steamer went down, for six hours. The rescued passengers do not blame the Loch Earn for the collision. Her officers and crew did their utmost to save life. Only two of the survivors remained on the Loch Earn, one of whom was wounded and could not be removed. The first cook from the Ville Du Havre was sent to ascertain if the Loch Earn could render any assistance. The Ville Du Havre is insured in London for £90,000.

A special to the Times says that the delay of the Spanish fleet at Cartagena is owing to the doubts of the finality of the crew of the iron clad Searavosa.

The story of the duel between Gens. Monlueffal and Von Loeber is now said to be without foundation.

In a certain Scotch parish the gravedigger was also an officer of the parish. Suspicion had for some time been entertained that he had been in the habit of abstracting some of the alms from the alms box. The elders told the minister that something must really be done. The minister said, "Leave him to me, and I'll see what can be done." The following Sunday, after the forenoon service, the minister was taking off his gown and bands, and being alone in the vestry with the suspected man thought the opportunity was too good to be lost; so he said, "Andrew, have you heard of the money that is amissing from the box?" "Oh, ay," said Andrew, "I was hearing something about it." "Andrew," continued the other very gravely, "the matter lies between you and me. We are the only two have access to the box. Either you or I must be the thief." "Deed, sir," rejoined the imperturable Andrew, "it's just as you say; we're the only twa that has had access to the box, and I think the best way'll be for you to pay the one half and I pay the tither, and say nae mair aboot it."

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,

BY MAIL,

COMMERCIAL

AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.
